

Proclamation

by Governor Jim Justice

- Whereas, the American Occupational Therapy Association has declared the month of April 2022 to be known as Occupational Therapy Month; and
- Whereas, the profession of occupational therapy makes valuable contributions in helping people "Live Life to Its Fullest" after an illness or injury; and
- Whereas, the services of occupational therapy are available to citizens of West Virginia through hospitals, home health agencies, schools, clinics, and nursing homes; and
- Whereas, the health and productivity of our citizens depend upon the effective use of health care resources, including the important services of occupational therapists and occupational therapy assistants.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Jim Justice, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim April 2022 as:

Occupational Therapy Month

in the Mountain State and encourage all citizens to join me in this observance to recognize the achievements and contributions of these valued health professionals.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Fourteenth day of March, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twenty-Two, and in the One Hundred Fifty-Ninth year of the State.

Jim Justice
Governor

By the Governor:

Mac Warner
